

TOWN OF RYE POLICY
POLITICAL SIGNS ON TOWN PROPERTY

By vote of the Rye Board of Selectmen on April 5, 2010: To reinforce NH State law regarding placement and removal of political advertising.

Political Advertising is prohibited from and adjacent to Town-owned property, including highway rights of way in accordance with and subject to the requirements of NH TITLE LXIII ELECTIONS, Section 664:17, Political Advertising, which is printed in its entirety below.

Political Advertising

Section 664:17

664:17 Placement and Removal of Political Advertising. – No political advertising shall be placed on or affixed to any public property including highway rights-of-way or private property without the owner's consent. All political advertising shall be removed by the candidate no later than the second Friday following the election unless the election is a primary and the advertising concerns a candidate who is a winner in the primary. Signs shall not be placed on or affixed to utility poles or highway signs. Political advertising may be placed within state-owned rights-of-way as long as the advertising does not obstruct the safe flow of traffic and the advertising is placed with the consent of the owner of the land over which the right-of-way passes. No person shall remove, deface, or knowingly destroy any political advertising which is placed on or affixed to public property or any private property except the owner of the property, persons authorized by the owner of the property, or a law enforcement officer removing improper advertising. Political advertising placed on or affixed to any public property may be removed by state, city, or town maintenance or law enforcement personnel. Political advertising removed prior to election day by state, city, or town maintenance or law enforcement personnel shall be kept for one week at a place designated by the state, city, or town so that the candidate may retrieve the items.
