

Map of the RYE TOWN FOREST Rye, New Hampshire 199.7± acres Showing Physical and Natural Features

Index of Wildlife Trees:

- 1 = Den tree, white pine, 34±" DBH, on wall
- 2 = Snag, white pine, 25"
- 3 = Red squirrel nest in white pine, 32"
- 4 = Snag, white pine, 17"
- 5 = Barkless snag with canopy cavity (16±"), white pine, 21"
- 6 = "Pasture" pine snag
- 7 = Cavity tree, red maple 30"
- 8 = Snag, 29"

Acreage Summary

- Woodlands – 155.4± acres
- Salt marsh – 31.7± acres
- Recreational field – 12.6± acres

Map Legend

- |       |                  |   |                  |
|-------|------------------|---|------------------|
| —     | Property line    | — | Perennial stream |
| —     | Stone wall       | — | Seasonal stream  |
| ☆     | Theatrical stage | ⊕ | Forested wetland |
| ○     | Boulder          | ● | Vernal pool      |
| †     | Cemetery         | ● | Small pond       |
| ■     | Building         | ⋈ | Salt marsh       |
| ==    | Paved Road       | — | Tree line        |
| ===   | Gravel Road      | ⊕ | Significant tree |
| ----  | Trail            | ⊕ | Wildlife tree    |
| ..... | Footpath         | ⊕ | Salt marsh edge  |

Map references:

Field examination (C. Moreno & M. Ross, Feb-March 2003)
 USGS/USDA Aerial Photos: 1998, 1974, 1952
 Town of Rye Tax Maps (Seacost Engineering Associates, April 2001)
 and (Parmenter Civil Engineers, April 1987)
 Maps: "Rye Conservation Commission Trail Map" (1981)

MAP SCALE:

1" = 570'±

Index of Significant Trees:

- 1 = Red oak, 29±" DBH, stunted (field grown)
- 2 = Sugar maple, 32"
- 3 = Black birch, 24"
- 4 = Red oak, 28"
- 5 = White pines, 35" and 31"
- 6 = White pine, 38", on wall
- 7 = White pine, 32", on wall
- 8 = White pine, 36", on wall
- 9 = White pine, 45+", "bull pine"
- 10 = Stand of 10-12 white pines, 20-25", clean boles
- 11 = White pine, 34"
- 12 = Red oak, double, 36"
- 13 = White pine, 32"
- 14 = Yellow birch, 24"
- 15 = Red maple, 25", broken top
- 16 = Red maple, 32"
- 17 = White pine, 36", on wall
- 18 = Red oak, 40+", on wall
- 19 = Red oak, 32", boundary tree
- 20 = White pine, 40+", "pasture pine"
- 21 = Red oak, 34", along shore
- 22 = Red oak, 24", "stumpy" growth
- 23 = Red oak, 36"
- 24 = Red oak, 38", large crown
- 25 = Red oak, 35", double
- 26 = White oak, 34"
- 27 = Red oak, 40"
- 28 = Three red oaks, 25±"
- 29 = Red oak, 27"
- 30 = Red oak, 36", on wall, leaning 50-55°
- 31 = Red oaks, 36" and 30", and red maples, 22" and 22"
- 32 = Four red oaks, 28-36", along shore

Map researched and drawn by:

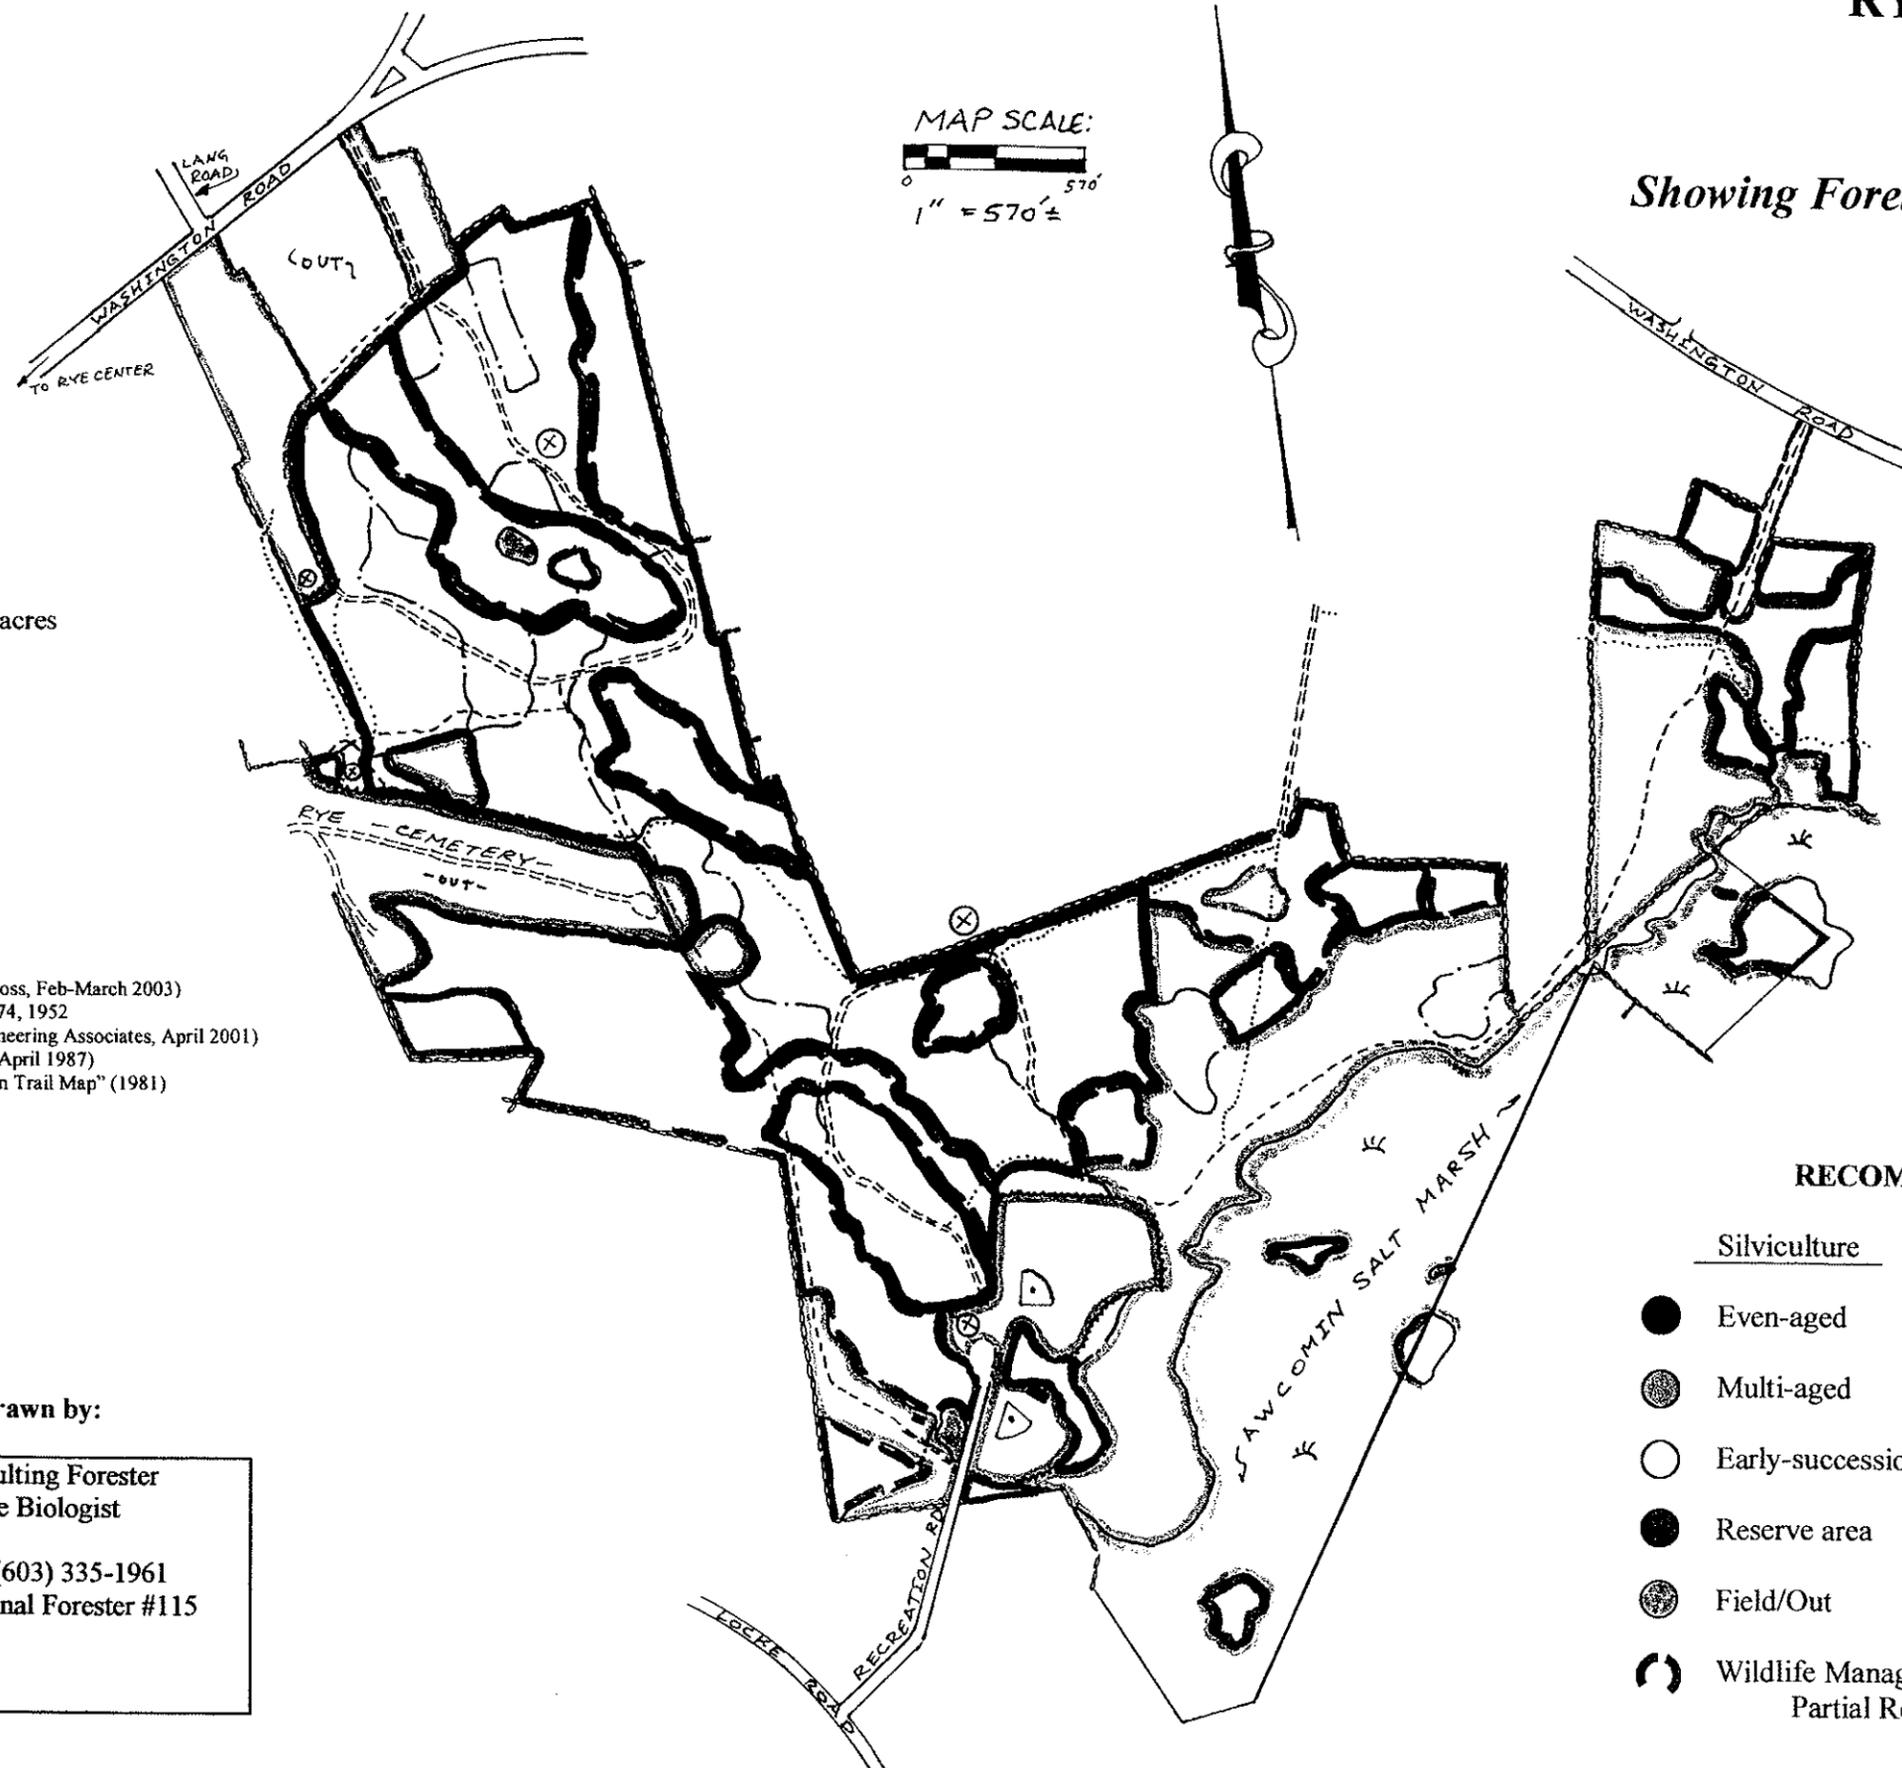

Charles Moreno, Consulting Forester
 Matthew Ross, Wildlife Biologist

Center Strafford, NH (603) 335-1961
 NH Licensed Professional Forester #115

May 2003

Map of the
RYE TOWN FOREST
 Rye, New Hampshire
 199.7± acres

Showing Forest Management Recommendations

Acreage Summary

Woodlands – 155.4± acres
 Salt marsh – 31.7± acres
 Recreational field – 12.6± acres

Map references:

Field examination (C. Moreno & M. Ross, Feb-March 2003)
 USGS/USDA Aerial Photos: 1998, 1974, 1952
 Town of Rye Tax Maps (Seacost Engineering Associates, April 2001)
 and (Parmenter Civil Engineers, April 1987)
 Maps: "Rye Conservation Commission Trail Map" (1981)

Map researched and drawn by:

Charles Moreno, Consulting Forester
 Matthew Ross, Wildlife Biologist
 Center Strafford, NH (603) 335-1961
 NH Licensed Professional Forester #115
 May 2003

Map Legend

- Property line
- ⊖ Stonewall
- Building
- ⊕ Cemetery
- - - Forest type change
- ▨ Salt marsh

RECOMMENDATIONS KEY

- | Silviculture                                   | Access             |
|--|--------------------|
| ● Even-aged                                    | ▬ Paved road       |
| ● Multi-aged                                   | - - - Woods road   |
| ○ Early-successional                           | - - - Trail        |
| ● Reserve area                                 | - - - Footpath     |
| ● Field/Out                                    | ⊗ Landing site     |
| ● Wildlife Management/Partial Reserve area | ● Poned/Salt marsh |

Map of the
RYE TOWN FOREST
Rye, New Hampshire
199.7± acres

Showing Forest Types

Acreage Summary

Woodlands – 155.4± acres
Salt marsh – 31.7± acres
Recreational field – 12.6± acres

Forest Type Key

- Stand A: White Pine, Intermediate (23.8± acres)
- B: White Pine, Older (19.6± acres)
- C: White Pine/Hardwood, Intermediate (14.0± acres)
- D: White Pine/Hardwood, Two-aged, Intermediate (3.3± acres)
- E: White Pine/Hardwood, Two-aged, Older (2.3± acres)
- F: Upland Hardwoods, Pole-Intermediate (15.9± acres)
- G: Upland Hardwoods, Older (21.9± acres)
- H: Mixed Hardwoods (12.6± acres)
- I: Forested Wetlands (40.1± acres)
- J: Early successional (1.9± acres)

Map Legend

- Property line
- == Town Road
- Stonewall
- === Driveway
- Building
- † Cemetery
- Small pond
- .-.- Forest type change
- █ Salt marsh

Map researched and drawn by:

Charles Moreno, Consulting Forester
Matthew Ross, Wildlife Biologist

Center Strafford, NH (603) 335-1961
NH Licensed Professional Forester #115

May 2003

Map references:

Field examination (C. Moreno & M. Ross, Feb-March 2003)
USGS/USDA Aerial Photos: 1998, 1974, 1952
Town of Rye Tax Maps (Seacost Engineering Associates, April 2001)
and (Parmeter Civil Engineers, April 1987)
Maps: "Rye Conservation Commission Trail Map" (1981)